Badness and mayhem abound. Good judgement... not so much.

"Hilarious" – National Post

"One of the few Canadian comedies I'll watch on my own time."

– Andrew Ryan, Globe and Mail

Join Dan Barlow (Dan Redican), the incompetent and flawed human social worker and his four criminal puppet charges Buttons, Bill, Rocko and Cuddles as they negotiate their way through peril and disaster in thirteen kick-ass episodes.

See them fight mobsters, steal cars, have affairs with wives of unstable jealous men, and go to unbelievable lengths to get back borrowed garden clippers – in other words, business as usual.
